

Dimitrios Kostaras is a Naval Architect and Marine Engineer and holds his MSc from NTUA. Also holds an MBA from ASOE as well as leadership management from Harvard. Started his career in 1989 with ABS, moved in various positions as well as abroad Korea, US being his last position as Vice President for Europe and Africa Division. Then moved to Pantheon tankers management as General Manager and currently is the General Manager for a newly established shipping company.

He has been in the shipping industry for 29 years and have worked mainly for few companies. During this time, have travelled and enjoyed working with people from different cultures and in diverse environments. Have met many targets and successfully completed a wide variety of projects. I have represented and defended my company's interests and always maintained excellent relations with my colleagues as well as with the partners.