

RESUME

Petros holds a degree in International and European Studies from Panteion University, Athens and an LL.M. in Legal Aspects of Marine Affairs at University of Wales, Cardiff.

He started his career in Piraeus in 2004 with Hellenic Hull Management and continued in a fixed premium facility handling H & M and P & I claims. He moved to Monaco in 2007 to work for The Strike Club as a Claims Adjuster. Following his return to Greece he joined Seascope Hellas in November 2018 where he assigned the position of Senior Claims Executive.

He was for 10 years Member at the International Propeller Club, Port of Monaco where he actively promoted its scopes, organizing, among other, the conference "Current trends in marine insurance", in which was one of the speakers.

He has been qualified as an Associate Member of the Association of Average Adjusters and is a Supportive Member of London Maritime Arbitrators Association.